

John V. O'Meara, Esq.

Mediator, Arbitrator

An AV rated attorney and a private mediator and arbitrator for over ten years, Mr. O'Meara has resolved cases involving construction defect, personal injury, product liability, professional liability, real estate non-disclosure and employment. He is currently a partner at Bremer, Whyte, Brown & O'Meara, specializing in construction defect cases, which include single family residences, custom luxury estates, public works projects, condominiums, high rises, commercial and industrial developments. Additionally, he works as an insurance coverage attorney which provides for a deep understanding of the role that insurance coverage and specialized policy provisions play in the resolution of construction defect cases. He is approved counsel for over 50 insurance companies. He has also been retained as an expert witness.
